

Vita

Name Ulrike Sacher

Adress Cascais

Nationality German

University and memberships in professional organizations

Landscape Architecture and Landscape Planning (Technical University of Munich)

Member of the architectural association since 1992

Member of the association of German Landscape Architects (BDLA) since 2005

Professional career:

1986 -1995: Cooperation on planning offices in Germany and UK

Processing and management of research projects

Concepts for the landscape in metropolitan regions

Land-use planning and master planning for industrial sites

Since 1995: own office in Germany

Design of open spaces commissioned by institutional, industrial and private clients

Master planning of open spaces of industrial work sites

Land-use planning including compensation schemes

Moderation and project development in the context of civic participation

1998 – 2000: Lectureship at the University of Applied Sciences Biberach

2007 – 2009: Lectureship at the University of Applied Sciences Wiesbaden

Member of the boards of the BDLA and the architectural association

(federal organizations)

Since April 2009: Project community in Germany

PhD project